Kakadu National Park Explorer Full Day Tour Departs from Darwin

World Heritage listed and the largest National Park in Australia, Kakadu is one of the most diverse landscapes you'll ever experience and you'll be amazed at the population of wildlife in the water, on the land and in the air. See some of the most amazing terrain Australia has to offer on your way to and inside Kakadu. Marvel at the concentration of rock art sites that illustrate Aboriginal culture, some dating back 50,000 years.

Kakadu National Park

In the heart of the Top End is Kakadu National Park, World Heritage listed for its breathtaking landscape, wildlife and Aboriginal cultural significance. Situated 250 kilometres east of Darwin, there's plenty to see and do in this diverse landscape spanning over 19,000 square kilometres. Kakadu is so large that its weather pattern varies from the coast in the north to the sandstone valets of the south. No less than six major landforms are found within the park's borders.

Highlights

- Travelling towards Kakadu along the Amhem Highway, the Marrakai Plains will provide a beautiful backdrop for your onward journey
- Visit the Warradjan Cultural Centre, where you'll be introduced to the way of life of the Bininj people, traditional owners of this land
- Join your local guide for a cruise on Yellow Water Billabong, home to thousands of saltwater crocodiles and up to 60 species of colourful birdlife, including sea eagles, brolgas and tiny brilliantly-hued kingfishers
- See estuarine crocodiles basking in the shallows and on the sandy banks
- Stop for lunch in Cooida
- Travel to the Nourlangie rock art site and take a walk with your Driver Guide around its base to see many different forms of Aboriginal rock art
